FACT SHEET

What?

A Lifestyle talk story television family program about all things Hawaiian, South Pacific Islands flavors, topics, music, historical and current events. A mixed plate of guest interviews, cooking tropical recipes, and ohana (family) topics from local Hawaiians to Hawaiians-at-heart! Some of our guests: Keoki Kahumoku, Bill Tapia, Leonard Young, Dr. James Ho, Elias Kauhane, John Keawe, Joe Keliiholokai, Dennis Kamakahi, Cyril Pahinui, Charles Reacido, Kohala, and more.

Why?

To provide an alternate good family show for the entire family to watch leaving viewers a warm feeling and experiencing the aloha spirit from the islands.

Who?

Local Hawaiians transplanted from their home in the islands love to feel connection to their homeland and love watching this show, bringing back the longing to their aina. Hawaiians-at-heart and millions of visitors to the islands enjoy reliving their visits of one of the most favorite places on earth! Those who've never visited the islands get their weekly vacation fix without traveling away from home.

How?

The producers are always open to sharing their show with folks who have a story to share, or event, or topics of interest to our viewers. They are also seeking sponsors to help keep our aloha-filled program on the air.
